

2024-2025 Graduate Assistant Position Content Focus Native American and Indigenous Students

About MSA

Multicultural Student Affairs (MSA) is one of three departments within Campus Inclusion and Community (CIC) at Northwestern University. Our mission is to enrich the cultural experience of Northwestern through leadership and education programming; providing opportunities for community engagement and identity expression; and assisting students in navigating the University.

About the Graduate Assistant Position

Graduate Assistants (GA) in MSA will gain valuable skills that can be transferred to any area within higher education and beyond. Each GA will be supervised by one of our five full-time staff members, who each serve as a content expert for one of the following student communities: African-American/Black, Asian-American/Pacific Islander/Desi, Latino/a/x, and Native American/Indigenous. In addition to working with a specific student community, the GA is also given the opportunity to work across communities through collaborations both within and outside of CIC that address the needs of the Native and Indigenous

By applying for this position, you are agreeing to this start date. The graduate assistantship begins with a two-day mandatory training that will take place September 10-11, 2024. Orientation may be virtual or in-person and has not been determined at this time. To be successful in your position, it is critical that GAs attend the entirety of the training from 9:00-5:00pm each day.

The hourly rate for this position is $20.00 per hour with a maximum of 20 hours each week. GAs will work with their supervisor to set a weekly schedule. GAs are only

Coordinate the annual Native American and Indigenous Community Dinner, which serves as an end-of-the-year celebration and an update to the greater Chicago Native American community